

Sermon-based small groups connect the week to the weekend!

Dig deeper into the talk each week, while getting connected, cared for and known. Challenge yourself to see how the message actually makes sense and applies to your everyday life and do it with people just like you to support you on your journey.

Message Info: I'm Holding On To Hope, 3/28/2022 - I'm holding on to hope. Sometimes we need to just need to declare that in the middle of difficult circumstances. Jesus is preparing His disciples for the difficult days ahead. I am going away but I'm coming back. Your moment isn't forever and your current circumstances aren't how your story ends. Hope is found in close proximity to Jesus. (Passages: John 16:16-33; Mark 5:24-34)

Discussion Questions: Take your time and dig into these questions.

Have you ever taken something simple and overcomplicated it? Can you tell us what and how?

Life has a way of complicating things, the enemy likes to confuse us but Jesus brings clarity and offers peace. Read John 16:16-33 and note the times Jesus mentions peace. What do you think he is communicating to the disciples, to us, about experiencing peace?

What else jumped out to you in this passage? Why?

There is a theme Jesus keeps bringing up in this passage - Now is not always. Did you ever find your self stuck feeling like your current circumstances would never change? What happened?

Read Mark 5:24-34. What does this incredible encounter teach us about hope?

What are some ways you can deepen your connection with Jesus and work on getting closer to Him this week?

Group Challenge: Invite a friend to church!
