

Sermon-based small groups connect the week to the weekend!

Dig deeper into the talk each week, while getting connected, cared for and known. Challenge yourself to see how the message actually makes sense and applies to your everyday life and do it with people just like you to support you on your journey.

Message Info: Face your Giant, 5/1/22 - Goliath was a huge problem. So are the giants you face. Some giants are external and some are internal but all are unexpected, intimidating, and intrusive. To face your giant you have to start with a spiritual perspective. The giant is standing between you and the future God has for you. It may be a big giant but God is bigger. Outsource your courage and confidence to God. (Passages: 1 Samuel 17:1-11, 20-26; 2 Corinthians 4:18; Joshua 1:6-9)

Discussion Questions:

What's your giant. What are some of the big obstacles you have been facing in life? How have you been trying to deal with them?

Giants are: big and overwhelming, trying to own you, will shake you emotionally, will wear you down. Have you been experiencing any of that recently? Which one?

Read 1 Samuel 17:1-11, 20-26: What sticks out to you about this passage (focusing on the Giant and David)? Why did that stick out to you?

Why does it seem like David is the only one who sees the Giant differently than everyone else? What do you think made the difference for David?

The giant didn't stand in the middle but stood between...between God's children and the promise God had made to them. What do your giants stand between right now?

Read 2 Corinthians 4:18. Why is this verse is so important if we want to live by faith?

Read Joshua 1:6-9. We need to outsource our confidence and courage to God. What reasons does God give Joshua to have courage and confidence in this passage?

What is one practical thing you can apply from these passages as you face challenges this week?

Group Challenge: Invite someone to church this week.
